Steps to Reproduce:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Login as user (same results were observed using admin account) 2. Open a contact details form <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Results can be observed by accessing a previously saved contact, or when adding a new contact. 3. Enter one character of any type in the any field. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ This does not need to be a required field, it can be an optional field. (See attached photo) 4. Observe that the save button activates as soon as one character is typed or deleted in any field. 5. Observe that the contact allows saving w/o any required or optional fields being completed. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Observe that if no name is entered, the contact will save with an empty name box within the contact group. (See attached photo)
Expected Result:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Contact form should not save without the required fields completed. Save button should not be active or error warnings should be present when required data is missing.

Actual Result:

- Contact is able to be saved with only one change/addition to any field. Data does not need to be entered in required fields for contact to save. No error messages are present.

Description

- The option to save is available as soon as you enter/delete one character in any field. Required fields can be empty and the contact will still save.
- Refer to test plan RT-1 Open
- Refer to test case RT-5 Ready
- Refer to attached photos of empty fields saving.

Contact Saved without Requirements

The screenshot shows the 'Resorts Tapped' app interface for 'Dev Mountain'. The main heading is 'Contacts'. A notification bar at the top states 'You have unpublished changes' with a 'Publish' button and a lock icon. Below this, a contact group titled 'Restaurants' is visible, with a yellow highlight around its header and the 'Add New Contact' button. The group has a 'Custom Sort Order' toggle and a dropdown arrow. Below the group, there is an 'Emergency' section with a plus icon and a dropdown arrow. At the bottom, there is a 'Group title' input field with 'Save' and 'Cancel' buttons.
